

The Fire Safe Council of San Diego County Volunteer Awards Nomination Information

Volunteers are the key to the success of Community Fire Safe Councils!

The Fire Safe Council of San Diego County (FSCSDC), in partnership with the Resource Conservation District of Greater San Diego County, invites you to nominate outstanding volunteers and individual Councils who have given exceptional service to reduce the threat of wildfire and further the mission and goals of Community Fire Safe Councils (CFSCs) within the past year.

The FSCSDC is now accepting nominations for the following awards:

Volunteer of the Year

Nominations are being sought for individuals actively involved with fire prevention, fire protection and fire preparedness projects or programs associated with a local CFSC within the County of San Diego County. Members of any CFSC, community at large, or local agency representative may submit nominations in this category.

Community Fire Safe Council of the Year

Nominations are being sought for an individual CFSC for its extraordinary work within the community it serves. Members of any CFSC or local agency representative may submit nominations in this category.

Rookie of the Year

Nominations are being sought for a CFSC re-established or newly formed within the past 12 months for exceptional organizational set-up and community project accomplishments. Members of any CFSC or local agency representative may submit nominations in this category.

Outstanding Project of the Year

Nominations are being sought for an outstanding CFSC project(s) completed within the past 12 months. Members of any CFSC or local agency representative may submit nominations in this category.

Awards and Certificates of Appreciation will be presented at the FSCSDC's Annual Awards Ceremony June 10, 2010.
